

Training for die tool

(individual)

Target group: Technicians, foremen, machine operators, tool designers, qualified personnel from machine tool construction and production.

Objective:

- Constructive and technical analysis of existing die tools
- Localization and resolution of planning, design and tooling problems
- Theoretical and practical knowledge transfer regarding die tools used on Bihler systems
- Realisation of reduced set-up, adjustment and production times
- Increased production efficiency

Assistance programme:

- Basics of design and practical basics of the punching and forming technology
- Tool maintenance
- Presentation of Bihler technology
- Procedure when correcting tools respectively adjustment for example when there are material fluctuations
- Reduction of the changeover and adjustment times, increase of the production efficiency
- Tool spare parts
- Tool coatings
- Hard metal processing in general
- Punched strip analysis

Date: by arrangement

Duration: 2 days

Preparation Please send pictures and tool documentation as CAD files in step or dxf per e-mail to schulung@bihler.de in advance

To bring along Die tool (upon agreement with the Customer Training Department)

Participants: max. 4

Prerequisite: - none -